A home of great charm and character!

Quietly nestled in one of Fisher's most desirable locations is this much loved family home that has had many improvements over the years and still offers a little more scope to add some touches without the fear over capitalising.

The home is located on the high side of the street and captures a filtered outlook over the roof tops and trees to the east. Whilst the rear garden features a spacious covered deck the flows beautifully into the private garden.

The living areas consist of; a large separate lounge room, separate dining room and an open plan kitchen family room leading to the deck at the rear.

Two of the four bedrooms have double glazed windows and the main bedroom features a renova
