Loaded with appeal!

This renovated four bedroom ensuite home has something for the whole family to get excited about! With a combined 288sqm house size incorporating an impressive 217sqm of living space the family will be able to spread out and enjoy their own space. It is located in a quiet section of the suburb only one street back from the walking trails that lead to Cooleman Ridge.

All four of the bedrooms are large and feature built in cupboards. In addition to the four bedrooms a home office opens from the living room.

The games room located off the side of the double garage will definitely be a hit for the teenagers!
