Immaculate solar passive four bedroom modern home

This beautifully presented four bedroom home is located in a quiet tree lined boulevard in the heart of the Inner North half way between the Ainslie shops and the Ainslie Football Club.

With the city so close and the buzz of the cafe scene around the corner at the Dickson shopping centre the new occupant will be well placed to enjoy it all!

The home was built only six years ago to very high standards and captures the northerly sunshine beautifully into the living areas through the winter months.

The entire home features double glazed windows and with the aid of a smart home control you can even activate and adjust the temperature of the hydronic heating whilst still at wor
