Stunning family home with views over Canberra!

This impressive five bedroom (plus study) three bathroom home was built at the top of Duffy opposite the Narrabundah Hill nature reserve in 2005. The commanding location captures views over Canberra incorporating many of the city's landmarks whilst giving you direct access to the walking trails and nature reserve.

Skyfire by the lake could become a thing of the past as you sit back with family and friends on your own terrace to watch the fireworks or it might become a morning ritual to enjoy breakfast on the terrace watching the hot air balloons drifting over Lake Burley Griffin. Either way I'm sure the view will draw you in!

The upper level is bathed in sunshine with a delightful northerly aspect filling the home with natural light. The main bedroom is separate from the other three and features a large
